

The first day of Religious School for the 2017-2018 School Year will be August 20, 2017.

We will be having orientation for both students and parents starting at 9 AM in the sanctuary. After students go to class, parents will be able to gather together for bagels and coffee.

Parents will have the opportunity to ask questions about what their child will be learning this year as well as learn about ways to get involved in our Religious School.

Please mark your calendars for what is sure to be a fun and meaningful day!

If you have any questions, feel free to contact Ms. Beth at beth@bethelbeaches.org or call 273-9100.

School Policies and Procedures:

In the event you need to pick up your child early, kindly come to the front lobby of the synagogue to sign out your child. We will bring your child to you.

For safety reasons, please do not attempt to pick up your child directly from the classroom.

Please refrain from texting or calling your child during school hours.

We have a dress code. This includes: no spaghetti straps without a covering, no flip flops for safety reasons, and no inappropriate/offensive/political t-shirts.

Thank you for following these procedures!

During the year, at synagogue events, we hope to take lots of pictures, many of which we may wish to post Beth El website, Facebook page, or other media outlets (such as the Jacksonville Jewish News) to publicize our activities and enable us all to enjoy and remember these events. These postings will contain pictures only, without any identifying names. We recognize, however, that some parents may choose not to have their children's pictures on our website, and we wish to respect that sense of privacy. To help us, please fill out the following permission form, so that we will be advised of your choice.
